

Letter TV Correlations for Nebraska

All programs in Letter TV focus on the primary association between viewing the letter and making the sound(s) of the letter. Specific key words are selected for their potential to illustrate this phonemic awareness, and other words are portrayed in context.

The series addresses the following Nebraska standards for kindergarten and first grade language arts:

Standard	Demonstration	Letter TV programs
1.1.1	Demonstrate and use the 70 phonograms when reading, writing, listening, and speaking.	all
	Use phonetic knowledge to read.	all
1.1.2	Recognize and name lowercase and uppercase letters of the alphabet.	all
	Recognize and generate rhyming words.	poems: B, C, F, P
	Say the initial, final, or vowel sounds of simple, one-syllable words.	especially D, F, H, Q, S, V, W, I
1.1.4	Retell, in their own words, stories in sequence (beginning, middle, end).	especially G, H, J, T, R
	Identify important story elements (main character, setting, events).	all
	Distinguish between truth and make-believe in literature.	especially G, N, V, U
	Listen to others read from a variety of literature in order to expand vocabulary and develop knowledge of sentence and story structure.	especially G, T, R, X