

Letter TV Correlations for Tennessee

All programs in Letter TV focus on the primary association between viewing the letter and making the sound(s) of the letter. Specific key words are selected for their potential to illustrate this phonemic awareness, and other words are portrayed in context.

The series addresses the following Tennessee standards for early elementary language arts:

Description	Letter TV programs
Develop language through gross motor, sensory motor, and perceptual skills.	perceptual: all motor skills: H
Develop an interest in literature which includes multicultural, gender, and ethnic diversity in language use, patterns, and dialects.	especially F, G, H, L, X
Use a variety of reading strategies: picture and context clues, substitutions, phonetic rules and exceptions, word recognition, and rhyming words.	all
Develop a reading vocabulary utilizing sight words, phonetic and structural analysis, and context.	all
Use comprehension strategies to enhance understanding, to relate ideas, to organize information, to make predictions, and to distinguish fact from fantasy during the reading process.	all predictions: especially G, P fact vs. fantasy: especially G, N, V, U
Use media to view, to read, to write, and to create.	all